By:Brad Saunders 12-3-2023

The Wilderness Bride shuns the Voice of her Groom. (Narrator)
An action like that is the path to all gloom.
When she heard the Grooms Voice, instead of depart
It would have been better for her, to examine her heart.

Oh Groom Oh Groom, Your Voice fills me with fear. (Bride)
Don't speak Your Truth, but what my ears want to hear.
Your strength is so great, it makes mountains to tremble.
The lightning and sounds, are more than any, can handle.

My Bride, My Bride do you really love me? (Groom)
When I said to come close, then instead you just flee.
If your heart is made clean and your love it is pure.
Your anxiety and stress I'd most certainly cure.

So the bride moves away and tells Moses "you hear". (Narrator)
"The Groom is your friend, so you should draw near".
Moses brings back, contract of marriage proposed
She says she will do it, now the contract is closed

My Groom, My Groom I made an image of You. (Bride)
It's that image I'll love but I'll still love you too.
That image of You is so strong, made of gold!
Your servant Aaron has made it, just as I told.

My Bride, My Bride a graven image is not love. (Groom)
It's the Commandments I spoke that came from above.
I'll be patient and forgive you again and again
Though I know that your heart, will continue in sin.

The Groom finally concedes and grants a divorce. (Narrator)
Because the Bride is so weak and love's never forced.
So the Groom came to die, and take away all her shame
But this story's not over the Groom's has raised once again.

My Groom My Groom you died for my sin! (Bride)
Can you ever forgive me and love me again?
If I'm willing to forfeit, my life for Your love
Would you raise me to life, with Your power above?

My Bride My Bride you've found love just like mine! (Groom)
A New Contract I offer, in my Strength is Divine.
Now My Law I will put, in your mind, there to stay
On your heart I will write it, with My Strength to obey.
